

LOCAL NEWS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, July 11, 1879 — For the Middle Atlantic States, southeast to southwest winds, stationary and higher temperatures, falling barometer, partly cloudy weather and possibly followed by occasional local rains with northerly winds and lower temperatures.

THE SUNDAY LAW.—In the Corporation Court, this morning, the indictments against Jacob Bohraus and Ed. Petty, for violation of the Sunday law, were taken up, and both of the defendants pleaded guilty. Judge Stuart sentenced both parties to pay a fine of ten dollars and costs, the lowest penalty allowed by the law. In rendering the judgment he said that he recognized the wisdom of the accused in pleading guilty, and not making a frivolous defense. The law in regard to the sale of liquors on the Sabbath had not been enforced in this city for several years and these parties were probably only doing what numbers of others had been doing unchecked. Now, however, the Mayor of this city had announced his intention of enforcing the law, and while he, Judge S., sat upon the bench, the Court would see that the law was obeyed. In future, when parties were brought up, on an accusation of this kind he would exercise the discretion vested in him, and whether a verdict of guilty was found or not, if he deemed that there was just cause, he should direct the Commonwealth's Attorney to give the proper notice and would revoke the license of the offender besides fixing a heavy fine. The law was one both of God and man and while he occupied his present position it should be enforced. He had sworn to carry out the laws and would not permit himself to do any more. In reply to a question from Capt. Petty, the Judge stated that it was not only the privilege but the duty of an ordinary keeper to furnish meals on Sunday, but with no case must liquor be furnished with or without meals.

IMPORTER.—On Tuesday last a man giving the name of W. H. Brown, Jr., called at the store of Washington & Co., on the wharf and presented that he had a cargo of 674 bushels of wheat on the way up the river. Mr. Washington was not in, and the man departed. Shortly afterwards the same man called at the store of J. T. B. & Co., on King street, and presented a check of $100 for the amount of wheat mentioned. Mr. B. & Co. had been informed by the man that he was a partner in the firm of J. T. B. & Co., and he also presented a check on a Baltimore bank for $100 on which he requested an advance of $60 to buy some supplies. Mr. B. & Co. did not know the man and he was surprised when he saw him the next day. This was proven satisfactory by the man, who shortly afterwards left the store and has not since been seen. He stopped a day at the Madison House and left an unpaid bill behind him. The man, who referred to several prominent and well known citizens of the lower river, is believed to have been an ardent importer.

Both Courts adjourned till tomorrow morning, at 10 o'clock.

CITY COUNCIL.—The Mayor has called the City Council together to night to consider the sanitary condition of the city. It will be remembered that a meeting was held last week and one hundred dollars appropriated for the purchase of lime, and cleaning the gutters, &c. It is claimed that this amount is entirely insufficient, and that unless something prompt and effective is done towards cleaning up the city there may be danger of sickness.

ONE WORD COVERS THE ADVICE which should be given to nervous, slender, and debilitated persons—'Invigorate!' Sedatives, opiates, appetizers, are comparatively useless. The system must be built up with a genuine tonic by the recovery of vigor and tranquility by the nerves. A course, systematically pursued, of the leading invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, should be resorted to by those who suffer from weak nerves and general debility. The stomach, always more or less dyspeptic in cases of nervousness, and loss of vitality, is toned and invigorated by this medicine until the organs go into a precise and healthy state of activity, and assimilation are, through the influence of the Bitters, followed by a gain of vigor and flesh, and the disappearance of all nervousness and irregularity of the bowels, where such exist, as they usually do. Appetite and sleep are then regained.

Social Meeting. FAIRFAX C. H., July 11.—Last evening was the occasion of a most enjoyable entertainment at this place. The Z. P. E. Chesham Sociable met at the residence of N. O. Bond, Esq., near this town. The evening was charming, and a large attendance was noticed, there being 75 persons present. These entertainments are of a very social character, and have been the means of passing an otherwise dull season. In the absence of Rev. Frank Page, president, J. M. Love, Esq., vice president, called the meeting to order.

After the regular business had been transacted the rest of the evening was given to the committee on entertainment. The Vienna band was on hand and discoursed some sweet music. The first piece was solo by Miss D. D. piano. Mrs. J. M. L. read a beautiful address from the letters of the young A. song by Mr. and Mrs. C. and Miss M. was sweetly rendered, after which the band, situated upon the front porch, played a march. Mr. Frank P. Berkley sang a base solo, "The Old Sexton," to "Pumpkin." The hits of the evening were "The Oak Sisters," by Misses R. L. B. S. G. and D. G., and Mrs. V. and Mrs. D., which received an encore. The refreshments were then handed and were of a most delicious kind. The trio, "Gently sighs the breeze," sung by Miss B. L. and Messrs Bond and F. P. Berkley, concluded the happy affair. Music and hostess deserve great credit for the delightful occasion. At a late hour the Sociable adjourned to meet next Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. M. D. Chesham.

COMMUNICATED. Retrench. As an earnest, well wisher of our dear old city I most sincerely hope that our new Council may adopt the suggestions of the Mayor. Most especially in this, the reduction of the present police force. It is unnecessarily large now. Cut it down to two men and two officers. Give the captain $550 per year, the lieutenant $500, and each private $450. I am certain the public would not object to this. I am certain I trust every member of the Council, and I trust every citizen of the city, will give it his endorsement. How well, in the good old days, we got along with less men and greatly less expense, many of you gentlemen in the present Council well know. Certainly all the "old stock" does. Let us have no misapprehension, my city fathers, in this business. Do that which the people expect you to do, and do it with a vim.

It may appear strange to my fellow-citizens that the grand jury found a presentment against me for a fine not paid over. I have paid to the clerk all the fines due the State; I have paid all fines due the Corporation to the Treasurer. I do not owe the State one cent. I do not owe the Corporation one cent, but the Corporation is indebted to me to the amount of five hundred dollars. Are any of the grand jury who found a true bill against me defaulters? I pause for a reply.

JOSEPH PADGETT, J. P.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

Business during the week has somewhat improved, though towards the close, owing to the unfavorable advices from Europe, there was less activity in the grain market. The consequent decline in the price of wheat upon receipt of the news from across the water, it is thought by judges, will only be temporary, but no very immediate demand is looked for, unless a speculative advance should spring up. Money matters heretofore remain in statu quo, a very large amount of currency having been absorbed by U. S. bonds, but for legitimate business purposes the banks are still liberally accommodated. The Bankers of the banks have declared semi-annual dividends, showing a "healthy" state of their affairs. The disbursement of the July interest has had no noticeable effect upon the market. Money in Baltimore is abundant, and loans on mixed collaterals are easily placed at 5, and on Government and other choice security at 4 per cent. The offerings of paper very light. In the New York money market the offerings exceed the demand, and on ordinary Stock Exchange collateral the ruling rate is three per cent, with the quotation 24-3 per cent. On United States bonds 2-1/2 per cent. is a full rate. Prime mercantile paper is 3-1/2 per cent. The Philadelphia money market continues quiet and steady, the offerings of capital being largely in excess of the wants of the mercantile community. Government securities are generally easy, 4 per cent. being quoted at 107-1/2. The Treasury Department requests parties holding 10-30 bonds to forward the same for redemption as soon as possible. The large amounts falling due on the 18th and 21st instant renders it impossible to redeem them promptly unless the bonds are received at the Treasury at an early day. If the bonds are forwarded at once they will be remitted for at once. State bonds are steady with some movement in Virginias, which are a shade firmer. $20,000 consols changed hands yesterday at 55-1/2 an advance of 1/4. The new 10-40s are steady at 49-1/2, $7,000 selling at that price. Peeler coupons sold at 15-1/2, and $3,700 of the past due coupons at 77. Railroad securities are somewhat firmer, with sales yesterday of R & O common at 110. There were sales of $2,500 Manassas 7s at 10. Va & Tenn 8s at 108. We quote:
